The Comptroller has already given instructions to Bankers but wants formal sanction of Govt. in the matters.

He also wants to be intimated of the month from which the payment has to cease, as the term of appointment of S. G. Forbes is only for 2 years. He took charge his office on 30.11.36.

Art 53 of the M.C.A.C. seems to be a general one, allowing the concession of Family Remittances at special rates to "officers belonging to the Hepsre local Service". The doubt felt by the Comptroller as to whether Mr Forbes is entitled to this privilege, appears to be due to the words in the G.O. sanctioning his appointment: "not entitled to Pension, P.F. or any other easement". Perhaps the easements referred to are concessions like free quarters, and it may not be the intention of Govt. to preclude Family Remittance privilege.

Re: month from which the pay has to cease, the information is to be asked for from the C.E.E. himself.

According to item No.6 of Government Order No. 1310-11/C.B., 79-36-2 dated 23rd November 1936 sanctioning the appointment of Mr.S.G.Forbes as Chief Electrical Engineer, he is not entitled to Pension, Provident Fund or any other easement. Whether the benefit of Family remittance is admissible in the light of the above Government Order is not free from doubt. To avoid delay, instructions have, however, been issued to Messrs.Coutts & Co. Formal sanction of Government may be kindly obtained and communicated to this office. As the term of appointment of Mr.S.G. Forbes is only for two years according to the Government Order quoted above, the month from which the payment has to cease may be kindly intimated to enable this office to instruct the Bankers in the matter.
